

International Day of Education

January 24

Education is a human right. The United Nations General Assembly proclaimed January 24 be observed as the International Day of Education to celebrate the role of education in peace and sustainable development.

CFUW has prepared a very informative infographic on Global Education, including Calls to Action. To see this, click on the link below.

<https://cfuw.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/01/International-Day-of-Education-2022-FINAL.pdf>