

School	Award	Annual Amount	Criteria
York University	UWCNY Beverley Jackson Prize	$500	Prize to benefit the student with the highest CGPA entering an undergraduate program at York University from the Bridging Program for Women. The award will be adjudicated in the Winter term of each academic year by the Office of Student Financial Services.
York University	University Women's Club of North York Award in Economics	$1000	Award to benefit a female student enrolled in a program offered by the Department of Economics within the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies. Applicants must have completed at least one year of study, maintained a minimum GPA of 6.0, demonstrate financial need, and submit a one-page statement summarizing their participation in extra-curricular activities and/or the community at large, and outlining how they hope to contribute to the Canadian field of Economics after graduation. The award will be adjudicated in the Winter term of each academic year by the Office of Student Financial Services.
York University	University Women's Club of North York Award in Information Technology	$1000	Award to benefit a female student enrolled in a program offered by the School of Information Technology within the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies. Applicants must have completed at least one year of study, maintained a minimum GPA of 6.0, demonstrate financial need, and submit a one-page statement summarizing their participation in extra-curricular activities and/or the community at large, and outlining how they hope to contribute to the Canadian field of Information Technology after graduation. The award will be adjudicated in the Winter term of each academic year by the Office of Student Financial Services.

School	Award	Annual Amount	Criteria
York University	University Women's Club of North York Award for Female Students with Disabilities	$1000 x 2	This award will support one female student with a disability who is enrolled in any Science related program and one female student with a disability who is enrolled in any Business related program at York. Applicants must have completed at least one year of study, maintained a minimum GPA of 6.0 and demonstrate financial need. The awards will be adjudicated by the Office of Student Financial Services in conjunction with Student Accessibility Services.
York University	University Women's Club of North York Award-Glendon	$1000	This award will support a female student enrolled in a science or business related program at Glendon College. Applicants must have completed at least one year of study, maintained a minimum GPA of 6.0, demonstrate financial need, and submit a one-page statement summarizing their participation in extra-curricular activities and/or the community at large, and outlining how they hope to contribute to a Science or Business field in Canada after graduation. The award will be adjudicated in the Winter term of each academic year by the Glendon Office of Academic and Student Financial Services.
York University	University Women's Club of North York Award-Lee Robertson Memorial Award	$1000	This award will recognize one student for their commitment to volunteering with women's focussed legal aid organizations, women's social justice issues or other areas of activism related to women. Applicants must have completed at least one year of study, maintained a minimum GPA of 6.0, demonstrate financial need, and submit a one-page statement summarizing their participation in extra-curricular activities and/or the community at large, and outlining how they hope to contribute to legal aid organizations, women's social justice issues or other areas of activism related to women in Canada after graduation. The award will be adjudicated in the Winter term of each academic year by the Glendon Office of Student Financial Services.

School	Award	Annual Amount	Criteria
York University	University Women's Club of North York Award in the School of Administrative studies	$1000	Award to benefit a female student enrolled in a program offered by the School of Administrative Studies within the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies. Applicants must have completed at least one year of study, maintained a minimum GPA of 6.0, demonstrate financial need, and submit a one-page statement summarizing their participation in extra-curricular activities and/or the community at large, and outlining how they hope to contribute to Business in Canada after graduation. The award will be adjudicated in the Winter term of each academic year by the Office of Student Financial Services.
York University	University Women's Club of North York Award in Science	$1000	Award to benefit a female student enrolled in a program offered by the Faculty of Science. Applicants must have completed at least one year of study, maintained a minimum GPA of 6.0, demonstrate financial need, and submit a one-page statement summarizing their participation in extra-curricular activities and/or the community at large, and outlining how they hope to contribute to a Science-related field in Canada after graduation. The award will be adjudicated in the Winter term of each academic year by the Office of Student Financial Services.
Seneca College	University Women's Club of North York Award	$1000 x 2	Award to assist a female domestic student, who has completed their first year of study in any multi-year program at Seneca. Eligible students will have demonstrated financial need, maintained academic achievement (a minimum GPA of 3.0) and shown evidence of participation within the College (extra-curricular activities) and/or the community at large. Selection is made by the Award committee (Seneca College).

School	Award	Annual Amount	Criteria
Seneca College	University Women's Club of North York Award-Technology	$1000	Award to assist a female domestic student, who has completed her first year of study in any multi-year program within the Faculty of Applied Science & Engineering Technology. Eligible students will have demonstrated financial need, maintained academic achievement (a minimum GPA of 3.0) and shown evidence of participation within the College (extra-curricular activities) and/or the community at large. Selection is made by the Award committee (Seneca College).
Seneca College	UWCNY-Judith Ransom Memorial Award	$1000	Awarded to a student in the English Language Institute who is in good academic standing and who intends to continue at Seneca in a full-time program. The student demonstrates community involvement at Seneca or beyond. The recommendation will be made by faculty. This award honours Judith Ransom, former President of the University Women's Club North York and Seneca instructor. Selection is made by Seneca staff.
Seneca College	UWCNY-Louise Slein Memorial Scholarship	$1000	Awarded to a full-time domestic student who identifies as First Nations, Métis, or Inuit. The recipient demonstrates exceptional leadership at Seneca or in the broader community. Preference is given to a student who is doing work related to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (TRC) and special consideration will be given to the area of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women (MMIW). The recipient will be nominated by the First Peoples@Seneca office. This award honours Louise Slein, a committed volunteer and member of the University Women's Club of North York.

School	Award	Annual Amount	Criteria
Earl Haig Secondary School (TDSB)	University Women's Club of North York Female Engineering Award	$1000	This award goes to a female student, Canadian citizen, living in North York, enrolling in an engineering course (any discipline) in a Canadian post-secondary institution. The student will have demonstrated a good work ethic, improvement in their academics in their final year at Earl Haig, shown evidence of participation within the school and the community at large, and financial need. Selection is made by the school staff.
Claude Watson School for the Arts (TDSB)	University Women's Club of North York Arts Award	$1000	This award is presented to a female student, Canadian citizen, living in North York, graduating from the Claude Watson program. The recipient for this award has demonstrated excellence in the Arts program, is proceeding to a Canadian post-secondary education in the creative arts, has shown evidence of participation within the school and the community at large, and having financial need. Selection is made by the school staff.
Downsview Secondary School (TDSB)	University Women's Club of North York Award	$1000	This Award is to assist a female student, Canadian citizen, living in North York. The recipient for this award has demonstrated excellence in the Science/Technology program and is proceeding to a Canadian post-secondary institution enrolling in a science or engineering program (any discipline). The student will have demonstrated good work ethic, improvement in their academics in their final year, having financial need and showing evidence of participation (extra-curricular activities) within the school and the community at-large. Selection is made by the school staff.

School	Award	Annual Amount	Criteria
C.W. Jefferys Collegiate Institute (TDSB)	University Women's Club of North York Engineering Award	$1000	This award goes to a female student, Canadian citizen, living in North York, enrolling in an engineering course (any discipline) in a Canadian post-secondary institution. The student will have demonstrated a good work ethic, improvement in their academics in their final year at C.W. Jefferys, shown evidence of participation within the school and the community at large, and financial need. Selection is made by the school staff.
Madonna Catholic Secondary School (TCDSB)	University Women's Club of North York Award	$1000	This Award is to assist a female student, Canadian citizen, living in North York. The recipient for this award has demonstrated excellence in the Science/Technology program and is proceeding to a Canadian post-secondary institution enrolling in a science or engineering program (any discipline). The student will have demonstrated good work ethic, improvement in their academics in their final year, having financial need and showing evidence of participation (extra-curricular activities) within the school and the community at-large. Selection is made by the school staff.